This is not your Grand-pa's laser tag. Battlefield Sports brings you "Battlefield LIVE" a live gaming experience played outdoors. Battlefield LIVE is a radical departure from yesterday's pew-pew indoor arena laser tag.

Unlike old fashioned laser tag there are no individual rankings, from first to last. Rather gamers get their own statistics such as K/D (kill/death ratio), accuracy %, and more. If a gamer plays a series of missions then their accumulative stats will show at the end of the session.

Here at Battlefield Sports we are here to help your business succeed. For example, we offer you access to a 24/7 resource site: the Battlefield Sports University.

The OUTDOOR MILSIM package of the "Battlefield LIVE" theme is great for teens and young adults. Corporate team building, product launches, bucks/stag parties, and birthday parties are a great for a Battlefield LIVE event.

This gear is flexible. Select from 300+ emulations or configure your own. This genre suits outdoor deployment from small fire teams to huge company-sized engagements. (Our record to date is 436 gamers at once!) All units include the latest SATR electronics, integrated head & barrel Optik sensors & a predator muzzle flash. The units have great light & sound effects. With SATR3 popular games like "Capture the Flag", "Rush" and "Heist " are fully integrated into the system.

While one Radio Repeater is a good idea, for an extra large battlefield then 2 is better.

"We have been absolutely blown away by the positive feedback & reactions from our customers. The SATR equipment has been incredibly well received and every session we have run has left players totally impressed. Our customers are amazed at the technical capability of the system and particularly the close replication to online or console gaming. It is so easy to play and we literally have had all ages playing from 7 year olds to 70 year olds and everything in between. We have only just scratched the surface in terms of customers getting the Battlefield LIVE bug!" Graham S
